

Google Street View: A Window into Marine Conservation

An evening presentation brought to you by the U.S. Coral Reef Task Force Education and Outreach Working Group

Please Join Us!

Where: Hawaiian Islands Humpback Whale National Marine Sanctuary Visitor Center, Kihei

When: Tuesday Sept. 9th, 6:00-8:30pm

Buses will leave The Westin Maui @ 5:30pm -- Pupus will be provided!

Registration is required: www.uscrtf2014.weebly.com/registration

Hokuala Johnson, with Papahānaumokuākea Marine National Monument (PMNM), will talk about how Google Street View is educating the world about the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands. She will take the audience on a virtual walk around the shorelines of PMNM and talk about the partnership that allowed this innovative technology to bring the magic of the Northwestern Hawaiian Islands to people across Hawaii, the country, and the world.

The NOAA Educational Council will demonstrate awesome new educational products!

The evening will start with a tour of the Kō'ie'ie fishpond, which is maintained as an important link to traditional Hawaiian practices

